O R D E R:

This writ petition is filed by the petitioner seeking writ of mandamus declaring that the petitioners are entitled to get approval for introducing Biotechnology course in the 2nd petitioner's College and the action of the respondents in not granting approval as illegal, arbitrary and violative of the Art.14 of the Constitution of India.

2. This matter came up for admission on 28.07.2005, and the matter was adjourned by a week for obtaining instructions, and further adjourned to today at the request of the respondents' counsel. Today it is represented by the learned counsel appearing for the 1st respondent that an order of rejection was passed on 09.08.2005, and therefore, the writ petition does not survive.

3. In view of the above representation by the learned counsel appearing for the 1st respondent, the writ petition is disposed of without going into the merits of the contentions advanced by the parties, as the writ petition does not survive. It is represented by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioners were not served with the copy of the said rejection order. Therefore, the respondents are directed to serve a copy of the rejection order dated 09.08.2005 on the petitioners immediately.

4. The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No costs.
